Australian Actor Getting up to BAD BEHAVIOUR At Cinequest International Film Festival in San Jose California

Australia's hottest up-and-coming award-winning young actor, Lindsay Farris was spotted departing Sydney International Airport accompanied by his publicist, Alice Collins.

Farris is headed to Los Angeles California to meet with a number of leading US talent agencies following the international premier of the multi-award winning Aussie horror film, BAD BEHAVIOUR at the acclaimed Cinequest Film Festival (March 1– 13) in San Jose.

The Australian independent feature film, BAD BEHAVIOUR that's slated in the special festival time-slot of the 'first midnight' screening at the Cinequest Film Festival on Friday 4th, is set to join other internationally acclaimed film success stories including Saw, Blair Witch and Juno.

The film, promoted as 'Bad people making bad things look good', is taking national and international film festivals by storm, winning multiple awards including the Best Actor gong at the Melbourne Underground Film Festival (MUFF) for Farris' performance.

The Cinequest Film Festival, with an industry reputation for being among the largest and most significant film festivals in the world, is a celebration of creativity and innovation, and is fast becoming the industry's newest "must-attend" event attracting an impressive array of actors, directors, filmmakers and film lovers who are collectively empowered to discover the next generation of talented superstars.

Farris who plays an axe wielding serial killer will be joining BAD BEHAVIOUR'S writer and director Joseph Sims and producer and editor Steven Caldwell at the Camera 12 midnight screening, and will be among hundreds of industry greats looking for the next big talent in film.

BAD BEHAVIOUR is having its NSW premier at the 2011 Australian Film Festival at 7:00pm, Monday the 7th of March at The Ritz Cinema in Randwick and will be hosted by veteran actor John Jarratt and the film's producers Kris Maric and Craig A Kocinski with many of the film's Sydney based cast also striding the red carpet for the premier screening which is expected to be a sell-out.
